DO SOMETHING

Steps

1. Do Something.

www.dosomething.org

Do Something is one of the largest global organizations that is designed for young people to change their world. At about 3.5 million members, they tackle any challenge. Look through the site and learn about the site / organization.

2. Keep up with the latest.

blog.dosomething.org

Keep up with the happenings on Do Something by following their blog. Check out the site listed with this step to see what is happening!

3. Explore campaigns.

www.dosomething.org/campaigns

Explore the campaigns on the site. Find one or more that you might suggest to young adults.

4. Share my campaign.

www.dosomething.org/campaigns/submit-your-idea

Check out the submission rules about submitting your own campaign.

5. Clubs.

Do Something no longer runs clubs. Some people felt that having clubs gave the perception that they were exclusive. How can you share the projects and information on the site without starting a specific "Do Something Club"?

6. Scholarships.

Scholarships are available to people 25 or younger in the US or Canada. All you need to do is complete a campaign and prove it by showing yourself in action. Check out more information on scholarships in the FAQ.

7. Internships.

High school and college students can get an internship with Do Something. Check out the requirements.

8. Volunteer.

Want to volunteer? You can do so either in person (New York City) or remotely. You need to be 18 or older. Learn more about volunteering with this organization.

Do Something

Do Something is a great site that helps you start thinking about service and what you can do to help others. It is designed for teenagers and young adults. Explore the site and take notes as you do.
