Recipe Card: Christmas 02

Christmas recipes can be used for parties, a Christmas Eve celebration or a large meal with your entire family on the actual holiday.

Recipe Cards

Start a new tradition by making and sharing recipe cards. The cards can reflect foods you traditionally serve or new ones you're experimenting with so everyone can see what's in the food before they eat it.

Allergy concerns are something you don't want to worry about over the holiday. You can include substitutions for ingredients on your own cards. If you're taking a dish to a party, printing the recipe to put next to the dish provides information for those who need it.

These cards are provided 4-up on a sheet for ease of printing and trimming.

This recipe card features a minimalist red design.
